Please note that the disbursement to the connected organization has been reported as an in-kind contribution to pay for food and drinks at a fundraising event for Sen. Blanche Lincoln. Although NABPAC recognizes that a connected organization of an SSF may not pay for any part of a fundraising event, and thus should not be reimbursed by the SSF, this was the only way to fully disclose the activity for this event. Another member of the connected organization had mistakenly paid for the SSF's fundraising event with the connected organization's credit card before the event took place, because the connected organization had its own event (not a fundraiser) at the same location after the fundraiser ended. The connected organization had to pay for all costs of both events up front. Please take this information into consideration. Thank you.
